

Bursaries for Continued Professional Development of Career Flying Instructors

Applicants are invited to apply at any time.
The selection panel will meet at regular intervals to discuss applications.

The aim of the Bursary Programme for Continued Professional Development is to assist instructors who might otherwise not have the necessary financial resources to keep their career on track.

Limited money is available in an ongoing process to fund or part-fund any of the following activities needed to Renew or Revalidate an existing Flying Instructor Certificate such as:

- FI(A) Assessment of Competence
- Attendance at an FI Seminar
- Financial support towards the required training and testing for the extension of the privileges of a FI Certificate to enable instruction for Night, Aerobatics, EIR, IR, or CPL.
- Financial support for the training and testing for the issue of an IRI certificate.
- Financial support to maintain other ratings essential for the instructor's current instructing task (e.g. towards revalidation/renewal of an instrument qualification for an instructor currently teaching for the IR/IR(restricted) ratings)

OR

Any other identified course of training which will enhance your instructional technique/knowledge

Candidates must:

- Already hold an Instructor Certificate (restricted or unrestricted)
- Be currently working or intending to work as a full-time Instructor
- Currently hold the appropriate EASA medical certificate

The awards are made by a selection committee appointed by the Company. Candidates will not be interviewed. The awards will be made on the evidence provided within the application form and the requested supporting documentation. For the successful candidates, details of the award, along with the full terms and conditions, will be sent for formal acceptance. The Company will expect training to be carried out in a timely manner and funding will be paid to the candidate on production of receipted invoice(s).
